By Observer

La Playa has decided to gave another of those popular dances, this time for the benefit of the Mission Restoration Fund. It is be held Friday evening, February 6.

My father used to say that there was only one thing worse than the bite of a rattle-snake, and that was the anonymous letter-writer. Nuf sed.

Looks as if the Influenza were on its way back. A pound of prevention is worth a ton of cure, and we would advise that the local druggist stock Doebell's Mixture. The army authorities found this one of the best preventatives.

I went to a party the other evening. We played a game called postoffice. You know every time you get a letter, you get a kiss. I played all evening and didn't even get a postcard. And while on this subject, let me state that tiddlewinks is a great indoor sport. Some of our citizens will get what I mean.

Among Carmelites, transient and permanent, receiving publicity, we find the name of George Shima, potato baron. We beg to advise you, George, that there will be many homes barren of potatoes if they continue to sell at four pounds for a quarter. Soon we'll have to stop calling them "Murphys." How about "Shimas?"

One of our fair horseback riders almost had a spill the other day when her mount shied at a passing auto. The poor animal received a good beating for not knowing better. It's pretty hard for a horse to get accustomed to an auto traveling without an animal pulling it. Bet two-bits the same girl would be scared to death if she saw a suit of clothes walking along the street without a man in it.

Four of our eligible young men, 'tis rumored, are planning to leave Carmel before long. Two of them will go to Honolulu, and from there proceed to another of the Pacific Islands to seek their fortunes. The other two plan to reach New Orleans in time for the Mardi Gras. Seems like rather a mean trick for these young fellows to quit Carmel when there are so many young ladies awaiting a chance to settle down. Probably the young men are afraid they'd have to settle up. Wonder if their departure has anything to do with it being Leap Year.

And there is still another of the community scheduled to leave Carmel within two weeks. Any person of the female persuasion between 20 and 45, who has sufficient money saved so that two can live comfortably in this city might prevent his departure. Inquire at Pine Cone office.

LARGE FAMILIES ON RECORD

Grand Total of Sixty-Two, Borne by One Wife, Would Seem to Be the Limit.

The nation which could scheme out the intensive cultivation of "man power" would win all the wars of the future and dominate the globe, but though this sort of thing can be done with vegetables and, to some extent, with poultry, it seems a far cry for the human race, and perhaps it is all for the best, for if six at a birth became common marriage might become uncommon.

The papers contained the information lately that a woman of Palermo had presented her husband with five boys, all well formed, and, according to the doctor, "eating well and crying well," but this case is neither unique nor a record.

The largest grand total of children borne by one wife seems to be 62—as many as most wives could want, certainly! Strangely enough, this number has been twice recorded. One is set to the credit of the wife of a poor weaver in Scotland who bore her "hubby" 46 boys and four girls who grew to manhood and womanhood, and a dozen others who died ere reaching their prime.

Sir John Bowers of Newcastle, we are told, adopted ten of the sons—rather a large order; three other landed gentry took ten each, and the remainder were brought up by their parents.

There will be a Housewarming Tea at Grey Gables, Lincoln st. at Seventh ave., tomorrow afternoon and evening. The proceeds will go toward the organ fund.

Next Sunday's church collection will be forwarded to San Francisco, to swell the fund being raised for the destitute Armenians.

The Ladies of the Demonstration Tea have expressed a willingness to devote the proceeds of their handiwork to the church fund. A list, giving information, has been posted in the church vestibule.

The Primary Class of the Sunday School, having outgrow its quarters, it is proposed that, after taking part in the opening exercises in the church, they shall march to the Presbyterian Chapel, and there hold their session.

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK.

YELLOWSTONE, our oldest and largest national park, is considerably larger than the state of Delaware. Its altitude ranges from 6,000 to 11,000 feet above sea level. It contains such a large collection of weird and freak natural phenomena that the visitor gains the impression the Great Creator of all things must have roamed over the world, collecting all the odd things he saw, dumping them here in one great disordered heap.

There are more geysers than in all the rest of the world put together. They range from tiny openings, spouting water but a few feet, at intervals of a few minutes, to the great giant, larger than a well, projecting a column of water 250 to 300 feet high, for a period of several minutes at intervals of several days. There are numerous waterfalls, the great fall of the Yellowstone river in the gorgeously colored, 20-mile-long Grand canyon, being 308 feet high. There are many hot springs and small lakes, also the largest lake—Yellowstone—at its height in North America. There are several paint pots—great cauldrons of blubbering, hissing mud; many steam vents and boiling pools, a natural bridge, a roaring mountain, a mountain of volcanic glass, petrified trees and wedded trees.

At Norris basin is said to be the thinnest known portion of the earth's crust. Standing there, the visitor needs no assurance that his satanic majesty resides near by.

Yellowstone, known far and wide for its wild flowers, is also the largest wild game preserve in the world.

Real Estate Slaughtered

No Profiteering. Exceptional opportunity to acquire desirable property at a fraction of its real value

There are only 30 lots for sale at the ridiculous price of $100 to $150 each

5 per cent cash. Liberty bonds accepted at full face value, or terms to suit

Lots are 40x100. You can build a mansion or a cottage on one

Certificate of Title to each purchaser

Lots have a commanding view and are covered with pine trees

Only a short distance from the Ocean

AS one who has traveled the world over and visited all the famed sea-side resorts, I challenge contradiction that there is no other place in the world that compares with the unparalled scenery of Carmel-by-the-Sea, and in no other place in the world can property (such as I am offering) be purchased at such a sacrifice price.

I WANT to apologize to the owners of property in Carmel-by-the-Sea for offering it at such a price.

IF you have any confidence in yourself or in Carmel, this is your opportunity.
